General Terms of Business (GTB) for advertisement, third-party inserts and online advertising

www.huss-mediasales.de/agb

1. An „Advertisement order“ within the meaning of the following General Terms of Business is an order relating to the publication of advertisements and third-party inserts in a print medium or by means of online advertising for the purpose of distribution. A contract is entered into taking into account the discounts granted according to the rates list. Advertisement orders only become legally binding through written confirmation.
 2. Publishing period: The publishing period for advertisements must be placed within one year after the contract is signed. If the right to place individual advertisements is agreed within the terms of a contract, the order must be completed within one year of the publishing of the first advertisement, provided the first advertisement is placed within the time limit specified in section 1.
 3. Upon signing a contract, the customer is entitled to place further advertisements in addition to those specified in the order at the same contractually agreed conditions and/or according to the rates list within the time limit specified in section 2.
 4. Online advertising (i.e. websites, newsletters, etc.) is defined by the time period booked. The customer is required to maintain the websites or documents to which the online advertising is to be linked for the entire period of the contract. With the exception of contrary individual agreements, the values defined by the publisher's banner system regarding visiting times and page impressions shall be decisive.
 5. Refusal of orders: The publisher is entitled to refuse advertisement orders at its own discretion – including single placements within a larger order. This applies in particular if the placement of the advertisement violates laws or other regulations, if it has been objected to by the German Advertising Council in a complaint procedure, or if its publishing is unreasonable for the publisher due to its content, origin or technical form, or if inserts, due to their size or presentation, give readers the impression of being part of the newspaper, the magazine or the publisher's own website, or contain third-party advertising. The customer shall be informed of the refusal of an advertisement order without delay, once the publisher has become aware of the content in question. Any online advertising that contravenes these regulations can also be subsequently removed from the online advertising platform.
 6. Advertising deadlines: The advertising deadlines stated in the rates lists are not binding for the publisher. The publisher is entitled to alter advertising deadlines at short notice to suit production processes.
 7. The customer may cancel previously booked orders up to 14 days prior to the advertising deadline (Print) or prior to the beginning of the advertising campaign (Online). After this time cancellation fees amounting to 50 % of the gross price are payable. Cancellations and withdrawals received after the advertising deadline or after the beginning of the advertising campaign shall take effect the next print edition or the next online campaign at the earliest. Furthermore, advertisement orders may only be cancelled if the advertising is not published after the beginning of the advertising campaign for important reasons. Cancellations must be made in writing. The use of fax and e-mail is sufficient for this purpose.
 8. Placing advertisements: Advertisements will be published in specified issues and editions or in specified positions within the publication or the online media, assuming these were agreed upon and confirmed by the publisher in writing, including by fax and/or e-mail. Classified advertisements will only be published in their specific classifications. If no clear placement instructions have been given, the publisher is entitled to freely determine the placement.
 9. Liability for the content of the advertisement: The customer bears sole responsibility for the content and the legal admissibility of the advertisement and/or the online advertising as well as for the materials provided for this purpose. The customer releases the publisher from any third-party claims made in this connection (including the cost of any legal defence required), even if the order has been cancelled. The customer is not required to examine orders or advertisements for infringement of the rights of third parties. With the placing of an advertisement order, the advertiser agrees to bear the cost of publishing a counterstatement that refutes the claims of the third party. With the placing of an advertisement order, the customer agrees to pay the publisher a reasonable compensation for the preparation of the advertisement. Should advertisements appear which were not suspended within the proper time, the customer is not entitled to claim against the publisher.
 10. Print documents: The customer is responsible for the timely and proper delivery of the advertisement text in print documents, inserts or online advertising. The details for supplying print documents can be found in the relevant advertising rates list of the publisher.
 11. Transfer of risk: Risk occurs with the receipt of the documents at the publisher's place of business or at one of the publisher's computer servers. The sending of more than two colour samples, late delivery of the print documents and the requirement for a print reproduction that deviates from the sample can have an impact on placement and print quality and rule out subsequent complaints. If possible, however, the publisher will immediately request replacements for obviously unsuitable or damaged print documents.
 12. Return of print documents: Print documents will only be returned to the customer if specifically requested. The mandatory retention period for print documents ends six weeks after the advertisement has been published. Any documents containing print samples sent to the publisher become the property of the publisher. These will not be returned to the customer for a postage fee of 5,- € or an equivalent amount unless the customer has explicitly requested it.
 13. Printing size of advertisements: If no instructions on size have been agreed upon or prescribed, the usual printing size for the type of advertisement concerned shall be used as a basic calculation. If the size of a supplied, ready-to-use print document differs from the size ordered in the advertisement order, the size of the printed advertisement shall apply. Parts of millimetres will be rounded upwards to the next millimetre.
 14. Proof copies will only be supplied if explicitly required. The publisher takes into account all error corrections of which he is informed within the deadline specified at the time the proof copy was sent. If the customer fails to return the proof copy within the deadline, permission to print is deemed to have been granted. The customer is responsible for the correctness of the returned proof copy.
 15. If print samples or online advertising are transmitted paperlessly to the publisher, either digitally (e.g. floppy discs, CD-ROMs) or by telecommunication (e.g. ISDN, e-mail), the following additional provisions shall apply:
File formats: All files containing print samples or related files are transmitted digitally, the customer is required to ensure that these files are transmitted and stored in one folder. Advertising samples should only be transmitted in closed files of which the publisher cannot change the content. The publisher has the right to refuse to accept open files (e.g. files stored under Corel Draw, QuarkXPress, Freehand). The publisher accepts no liability for the incorrect publishing of printed advertisements that were transmitted in open files.
 16. Online advertising may only be delivered in suitable coordination with the publisher. The publisher's specifications must be complied with. The publisher accepts no liability for errors in files delivered by the customer.
 17. Colour advertisements: The customer is required to supply a colour proof for digitally transmitted print documents for colour advertisements. Digitally created proofs must include the current version of the FOGRA/GUARIA medium wedge in order to permit a colour match. Proofs must bear an official print control strip. Without a colour proof from the customer, colour variations are unavoidable and cannot be used by the customer as a ground for compensation. In all cases a printout must be sent to the publisher by fax or e-mail, failing which a formal complaint may be filed. The customer must explicitly request a correction fax. Conversion within the normal range of tolerance can only be carried out by the proper colour selection and permission.
 18. Computer viruses: The customer is responsible that the files transmitted or stored do not contain computer viruses. The publisher is entitled to delete files that contain computer viruses without the customer being able to claim for damages. Furthermore, the publisher reserves the right to claim damages if computer viruses infiltrated via the customer cause damage to the publisher.
 19. Advertisement samples: Upon request, the publisher will deliver a copy of the advertisement sample with the invoice. Depending on the nature and scope of the advertisement order, excerpts, sample pages or complete samples may be delivered. If a sample can no longer be obtained, the publisher is instead required to provide a legally binding certification of the publication and distribution of the advertisement.
 20. Box number advertisements: Any responses received to box number advertisements will be kept for collection for a period of four weeks or forwarded to the customer by standard mail, even if the letters are registered or urgent. The publisher will send back valuable documents without being required to do so. Otherwise, any responses received to box number advertisements will be forwarded to the customer. The publisher reserves the right to charge a handling fee in order to eliminate misuse of the box number for investigation purposes. The customer authorizes the publisher to register responses to box number advertisements.
 21. Calculation of purchase volumes: For the calculation of purchase volumes, text millimetre lines will be converted to advertisement millimetres based on rates.
 22. Additional setting costs: Any costs incurred for the production of print documents or for major changes desired by the customer to versions of advertisements originally agreed upon, or for which the customer is responsible, shall be borne by the customer. The same applies to any print samples delivered by the customer that generate additional costs due to handling or subsequent changes.
 23. Discounts: If an order is not fulfilled due to circumstances beyond the control of the publisher, regardless of any other legal obligations, the customer is required to refund the difference between the discount granted and the discount due in accordance with the actual placement volume. The refund will be waived if non-performance is due to force majeure within the publisher's sphere of risk.
16. Changes in advertisement rates: If changes in advertisement rates are made, the new rates are also valid for current orders as from their date of introduction, unless otherwise agreed in writing.
 17. Differing rates: The publisher can determine rates that differ from the rates list for the following: advertisements in publisher's supplements, editorially designed advertisements, advertisements in the press, advertisements in the radio and television media, and other forms of advertisement.
 18. Reduced value of circulation: If an order covers multiple publications, a price reduction can be claimed due to a reduced value of circulation if the circulation guaranteed in the rates list is 30%, below the total average circulation of the previous insertion year according to IAB reports. Furthermore, when placing advertisement orders, any claims for rate reductions or damages are excluded if the publisher has notified the customer of the reduction in circulation in a timely manner sufficient to enable the customer to withdraw from the contract prior to the appearance of the advertisement. The publisher reserves the right to change the number of pages in the publication without the customer being entitled to make claims in this respect.
 19. Invoices: are payable within 14 days of invoicing, unless another payment period or advance payment has been individually agreed upon. The publisher is entitled to correct incorrect invoices within six months of invoicing.
 20. In the event of late payment or deferral of payment: the legally applicable interest at the commercial rate of 9 percentage points above the basic interest rate of the European Central Bank will be charged. The interest on the amount of the advance payment will be calculated from the date of the advance payment until the date on which it is to be offset against outstanding compensation for damages if the damage is provably higher (e.g. due to legal costs). The standard charge also due in the event of delayed partial payments or delayed payments in instalments (Section 288 of the German Civil Code (BGB) new version). This applies to the placement of advertisements after 28/04/2014. Exceptions are previously established continuous obligations, provided the service rendered in return is performed after 30/06/2010 (Section 229 subsection 3 new version of the Introductory Act to the German Civil Code (EGBGB)). Payment deadlines for commercial transactions may not exceed 60 days, unless these payment deadlines are grossly unreasonable for the creditor. If the customer is a consumer, in the event of late payment the interest rate shall be 5 percentage points above the relevant basic interest rate and is also applicable in cases of deferment of payment. The publisher reserves the right to assert a claim for further damage caused by delay brought about by both companies and consumers. However, the contractual partners reserve the right to furnish evidence of lower or higher damage in each individual case. In the event of late payment by companies and consumers, the publisher is entitled to postpone the furnishing of evidence of the current order until such time as payment is made and also demand payment in advance for any further advertisements. Should there be any justified doubt regarding the customer's ability to pay, the publisher is entitled to make the publication of further advertisements dependent on the advance payment of the due amount and on the settlement of any outstanding invoices, including during the term of an advertisement order, irrespective of any previously agreed payment period.
 21. Warranty: If printing errors occur in an advertisement, despite the timely submission of faultless print documents and timely complaint, the customer is entitled to demand either the publication of a faultless replacement advertisement (rectification) or a reduction in the price of the advertisement commensurate with the degree to which the purpose of the advertisement is impaired. Should any defects in the print documents or images not be immediately recognisable, but only become evident during production, the customer shall have no right to claim in the event of unsatisfactory printing quality. The same applies to errors in advertisements that appear repeatedly, if the customer does not draw attention to the error prior to the printing of the next advertisement. The publisher is not required to check the relevant documents to ensure they are completely correct. In the case of claims for damage, the customer is entitled to demand the rectification of the error in accordance with the relevant terms of the contract or the publisher, i.e. in particular on the publisher's server. Furthermore, the warranty does not apply to negligible errors, e.g. if the impairment of reproduction does not significantly impair the purpose of the online advertising. The customer is aware that in accordance with the current state of the art, it is not possible to provide wholly error-free online advertising reproduction at all times. If the publisher's server breaks down for a significant period of time (more than 10 % of the time period booked in a time-linked fixed booking, the publisher will endeavour to supply the missing media service at a later date or to extend the insertion time, assuming it is not contrary to the interests of the customer. If the attempt to supply the missing media service fails within the originally booked insertion period or after extension of the insertion period, the customer is no longer required to pay for the media service not implemented during that time period, or the average length of the media services not implemented. Any further claims are excluded. Apart from that, an error or fault cannot be said to exist if the length of the breakdown of the server used by the publisher does not exceed 24 hours (either consecutively or cumulatively) within 30 days of the commencement of the contractually agreed placement. If the customer disregards these general rules of business, the publisher is not obliged to rectify the error in accordance with the relevant terms of the contract or the publisher. He or she is entitled to demand to claim for incorrect publication of the advertisement. The publisher guarantees the best possible execution of the advertisement technically possible within the given time and the scope of the print samples. Complaints of obvious defects must be made in writing by the customer within four weeks of publication at the latest. All warranty rights lapse after 31 December of the year following the publication of the corresponding advertisement or insert.
 - 22.a) Regardless of the legal grounds on which they are based, including tort, the publisher is only liable if damages (1) are caused through a culpable breach of an essential obligation of the contract (cardinal obligation) by the publisher in a manner endangering the achievement of the purpose of the contract or (2) are caused by gross negligence or with willful intent on the part of the publisher.
 - b) If the publisher is liable in accordance with clause a) (1) or (2) for a breach of a fundamental contractual obligation without willful intent or gross negligence, the liability from the contract shall be limited to the agreed advertisement price.
 - c) If the publisher is liable in accordance with clause a) (1) or (2) for gross negligence or willful intent by employees who are not organs or executive staff members of the publisher, the liability shall also be limited to the agreed advertisement price.
 - d) The publisher shall not bear liability for indirect damages, consequential harm caused by a defect, or loss of profits and compensation for futile expenses insofar as these are not the result of willful intent or gross negligence on the part of organs or the executive staff members of the publisher.
 - e) Otherwise, any liability of the publisher shall be limited to such typical damages, the occurrence of which could be reasonably foreseen under the circumstances known at the time of entering into the contract.
 - f) The exclusion or limitation of claims in accordance with the above clauses a) to e) to includes any claims made against employees or representatives of the publisher.
 - g) The liability of the publisher due to personal injury, the absence of guaranteed characteristics in accordance with product liability law shall remain unaffected.
 - h) The customer is not entitled to claim if the non-availability is based on work or maintenance tasks that are solely performed in the interest of the customer.
 - i) The publisher does not accept liability for errors caused by telephone or written telecommunication of any kind. Neither shall liability be accepted by the publisher if defects in the products or services become apparent through reproduction or printing. In this case the customer shall have no right to claim damages for unsatisfactory products or services. Any damage to the customer resulting from the reproduction or printing of the advertisement may be claimed according to the relevant terms of the contract.
 - j) Cases of force majeure such as industrial action, confiscation, general strikes of raw materials, energy supply or plant functions releases the publisher from the obligation to fulfil orders and payment of damages. However, if the publisher is able to fulfil the orders with 80% of its circulation quantity sold, the publisher is entitled to full payment for the advertisements delivered. Lesser services provided should be paid according to the set price per thousand pages in accordance with the quantity sold referred to in the tariff.
 23. To the extent permitted by law, the place of performance and jurisdiction shall be the registered office of the publisher. German law shall apply to the advertisement order in all cases.
- ## Additional terms of business of the publisher
- a) Our general terms of business of the publisher, the order confirmation and the applicable valid rates list are decisive for each order. Any differing terms of business shall only prevail with the written confirmation of the publisher.
 - b) Advertising agents and advertising agencies are required to adhere to the publisher's rates list when making offers, finalising orders or invoicing clients. The agent's commission paid by the publisher must not be passed on to the customer, either in full or in part.
 - c) Customers and advertising agencies entering into a business relationship with the publisher for the first time may be required to make advanced payments prior to the advertising deadline.
 - d) The customer transfers to the publisher all copyrights and other special rights required for the use of the advertising in print and online media of all kinds (including the internet), in particular for duplication, distribution, transmission, broadcasting, extraction from a database and downloading without limitation of time, content or place to the extent necessary for the implementation of the order or orders placed.
